

HEATHER OSMOND HALLOWS

B I O G R A P H Y

---

Common among all great artists and entertainers is a rich history of experience—at the young age of 26 Heather is no exception. Not only does her star-common history signal talent, but Heather's unique style and distinct voice find place among the “rare finds” of today’s music. Not only does she bare the Osmond name, most refer to her as the “Little Marie” in both looks and talent. With an attractive personality alongside an amazing voice, Heather hopes to find success in doing what she loves—performing for others.

Heather started performing when she was three years old and hasn’t stopped since. Over the years Heather has been involved in a wide variety of different shows and productions, the following is a list of some of them:

- ❖ Big C and the Little O’s
- ❖ Branson 93,94,97,03,04
- ❖ Cinderella '99
- ❖ State and County Fairs
- ❖ Four national network Osmond Family Theater shows
- ❖ National Network TV Special
- ❖ State wide TV special called “Desert Storm”
- ❖ Eugene Jelesinik Show
- ❖ “Christmas Magic” in Abravinal Hall '97
- ❖ On Stage performing group 4 years

TV Pilot for series aired on HDTV “StarStruck”~Co-hosted with Merrill Osmond and guests Glen Campbell, Debbie Campbell, The Platters, football legend “Rudy” Rudy Ruettiger, and Tony Roi as “Elvis.”

Scholarship America Gala - Performed in, co-wrote the theme song, and produced the event which included Vince Gill, Amy Grant, Tony Orlando, and the Osmond Brothers.

In addition to the above list, Heather has recently made several trips to Nashville and is pursuing a solo career of her own. She also continues to travel and perform with Merrill Osmond both here in the States and all across Europe.

Heather possesses an amazingly natural talent to sing. While playing her demo CD for recording executives across the nation, comments on her voice and music have included such things as “Powerful”, “Very catchy”, “Amazing natural talent”, “Memorable voice”, “A definite shoe-in to the entertainment business”, and “A future star in the making”.

Heather loves and looks forward to every opportunity she gets to perform for others. The thing she enjoys most about performing is making others happy. She loves the energy and excitement that music can bring to an audience of people—an excitement she hopes to bring to others for years to come.
